"Ugh." Said Ameil as he looked out the car Window. Ameil was thirteen and short, he had short baby blue hair and green eyes. "Why did we have to move mom?" I miss my old friends." "What? You had friends?" Alex, his sister, said in a sarcastic voice. Alex was sixteen and tall. She had blond hair and fiery, red eyes."Shut up Alex!" Yelled Ameil, stomping his foot down in anger, only, it was on a paw.

"Bow-wow-wow-wow" yelped pooch in pain. Pooch was their pet Poochyena. " Stop making a fuss back there!" Yelled Clar. Clar was their mother. She was thirty-six and average height. She had blond hair and calm, baby blue eyes. " whatever." Ameil and Alex said in unison.

"Look!" Said Clar, "we're in Aerokyte!" Ameil looked out the window. Aerokyte was a very rural town. It was small, a town square with all the shops and stores with four main streets leading out. Two were leading in and out of the town, the way they had just came, These were called in and out lane. The other two led out to residential districts with more streets leading off of them, these were called apple street and walnut street. Ameil had no idea where their new house was. Clar pulled into apple street and turned left onto koala lane. Koala lane led down a little bit then

"I'll get him." said Ameil. He jumped up and ran into the woods. It was dark and the floor was covered in pine cones. "Pooch, Pooch!" yelled Ameil as he stumbled through the thick forest. He heard a cry deeper in the forest. "Pooch there you are." as he walked into the forest. But what he found was not Pooch, but it was a Pancham, surrounded by a group of wild Ekans.
